Bijan: Are you OK?

Mehran: I'm thinking about something.

Bijan: What's wrong?

Mehran: I have saved some money to buy a new mobile phone. But one of my friends is in trouble and needs some money. What would you do if you were in my shoes?

Bijan: What is his problem?

Mehran: I could tell you about it if it weren't a secret. But it's an emergency.

Bijan: OK. If I were you, I would give him the money. A friend in need is a friend indeed.

متن شماره ۳

Maryam: Hi, Sara. What are you doing here?

Sara: I am looking for a good dictionary. I think you have bought one recently, haven't you?

Maryam: Yes. I bought a very useful one in this bookstore.

Sara: Many of dictionaries are too expensive. You know, two heads are better than one. Can you help me to buy a suitable one?

Maryam: In fact, it isn't always necessary to buy one. Sometimes, you can use a free online dictionary. There are some free dictionaries for PCs and apps for smart phones. Such dictionaries are easy and accessible to use.

Sara: How can I use them?

Maryam: Well, to access information about any word, just type the term into the search box. It offers spelling and meanings, plus a host of information, including its pronunciation, origin, and etc.

Sara: Thanks. That was really a great help.

Maryam: You're welcome.

متن شماره ۴

(مشابه پارت اول صفحه ۴۱ کتاب)

Do you know why it is important to care for our elders? Because they are our mothers and fathers, and our first teachers. They teach us how to love, how to care, and how to forgive others. Elders have more knowledge and wisdom than any one of us. They've come so far and they've learned so much, that's why we should learn from that wisdom. But the most important thing is their experience. We may or may not know of all the ups and downs they've faced in life, but they have a lot of experience that is worth respecting and learning from. Our elders may hide much pain from us because they don't want us to feel the pain, the least we can do is to appreciate them for all that they've gone through and learn from their experience.
