There are thousands of words in the English language. That's a lot of words. You won't know what many of these words mean, but that's OK. You can find what they mean in a dictionary. A dictionary can be a book. A dictionary can also be online. Dictionaries tell us what words mean. They show us how to spell words. They also tell us how to say words the right way. Dictionaries also show pictures. Sometimes, a picture can help you understand what a word means. So the next time you don't know what a word means, look it up in the dictionary. Find a dictionary book. You can also find an online dictionary. The more words you know, the more you can learn about the world. How interesting that is!

Father: OK. Tell me about the picnic. What did you do?

Son: That was great, Dad. We played volleyball and had a barbecue.

Father: Oh, come on! Did you do anything fun?

Son: Yeah, it was all fun. Before we played volleyball, we had taken some photographs.

Father: Great! Did you do anything in the afternoon?

Son: Oh, something interesting! After we had eaten lunch, we flew our kites. That was fantastic because we had made the kites ourselves!

Bijan: Are you OK?

Mehran: I'm thinking about something.

Bijan: What's wrong?

Mehran: I have saved some money to buy a new mobile phone. But one of my friends is in trouble and needs some money. What would you do if you were in my shoes?

Bijan: What is his problem?

Mehran: I could tell you about it if it weren't a secret. But it's an emergency.

Bijan: OK. If I were you, I would give him the money. A friend in need is a friend indeed.

Sara: It is so good that there are famous physicians in your hospital.

Nurse: Do you know Iran has always had great physicians and doctors and has been rich in medicine.

Sara: It sounds interesting. Can you name some of them? I'd like to know them.

Nurse: Back in history, we can mention Avicenna.

Sara: Avicenna! Can you tell me more about him?

Nurse: Yeah, of course! He was a great Persian physician. He has written two great books. His life is a source of inspiration for many people. Sara:

Sara: That's so nice. I think I'll ask my dad to take us to Hamedan this summer.

Nurse: Yeah, I think that will be an exciting trip!
