Vision 3 – Lesson 1

Page 41 – What You Learned

Part A:

Dr. Asadi is answering this important question: “why is it important to care for our elders?” I think first of all we need to remember that they are our mothers and fathers, and our first teachers. They teach us how to love, how to care, how to forgive, and how to accept. Second, elders have more knowledge and wisdom than any one of us. They’ve come so far and they’ve learned so much; we have a responsibility to learn from that wisdom. But the most important thing is their experience. We may or may not know of all the ups and downs they’ve faced in life but they’ve definitely gained experience that is worth respecting and learning from. Our elders may hide much pain from us because they don’t want us to feel the pain. The least we can do is appreciate them for all they’ve gone through and learn from their insight into situations.

Answers:

1.
 - a. Why is knowing about the experience of our parents important?
We can learn from their experience.
 - b. Why are our parents our first teachers?

2. Listen again and write down three important points mentioned.
